ENJOY THE CITY

Discover the different sides of Medellín: art, history, urban transformation, nature and landscapes..

Explore the city:

PLAZA BOTERO — OBRA TIP: Combine it with Museo de Antioquia + Palacio de la Cultura + a walk through Carabobo.
The artistic heart of downtown Medellín. The plaza features 23 monumental sculptures by Fernando Botero and is located next to Museo de Antioquia and Palacio de la Cultura Rafael Uribe Uribe.

COMUNA 13 — OBRA TIP: Ask for the stories behind the murals.
One of the most representative places showcasing Medellín's urban transformation. Its murals, outdoor escalators, music and cultural spaces reveal different stories of the neighborhood.

PUEBLITO PAISA — OBRA TIP: Go at the end of the afternoon to see the sunset and the skyline lighthing up
Located on top of Cerro Nutibara, this traditional Antioquian village replica is one of the city's classic viewpoints.

MUSEO DE ANTIOQUIA — OBRA TIP: Visit it together with Plaza Botero to turn both experiences into one city route.
One of the city's leading museums, featuring an important collection of works by Fernando Botero, alongside pre-Hispanic, Republican and contemporary art.

JARDÍN BOTÁNICO — OBRA TIP: Pair it with Parque Explora and the northern area of Medellín.
A natural oasis in the middle of Medellín. Perfect for slowing down, walking among tropical vegetation and discovering another side of the city.
